Fall Price List 1915

In presenting to you our price list for Fall 1915, we wish to thank you for your liberal patronage in the past. We hope that the past season has been a prosperous one with you.

We have had a fine season for plant making and we have increased our acreage and have a fine lot of plants. Will be prepared to furnish you Excelsior, Klondike, Aroma and Champion K in large lots.

We will begin shipping plants this season about Oct. 15.

Payments must be made in advance, by express or postoffice money order, bank draft or registered letter, or we will book your order for one-fourth the amount, balance to be sent when plants are ordered shipped.

Imp. is for imperfect varieties. They must have perfect varieties planted with them, otherwise they will not make perfect fruit.

Per. is for perfect varieties.

Our Guarantee.—We exercise the greatest care to keep our plants true to name and hold ourselves in readiness to replace (on proof) all stock that may prove otherwise, but in no case are we liable for more than the same amount of plants bought of us.

We ship plants in crates, placing damp moss to the roots. The crate we use has been accepted by the railroad company as the neatest and safest package to ship plants in, and has recommended that other nurserymen use the same kind of package. A Certificate of Inspection from the state entomologist will be attached to each and every package of plants.

We carry special permit from Texas and Oklahoma.

Again thanking you for past favors and wishing to be favored with your future orders, we are,

Yours very truly,

LOUIS HUBACH.

Description of Variety

CHAMPION (Per.)—This variety is the one we introduced last year as the Champion-Klondike. We shipped out quite a lot of them to different parts of the country, and all that have reported on them so far are well pleased with the growth of them. They graded this last season as Fancy Klondike. One man that ordered one hundred plants last season has written us that he will order five thousand this fall.

Knowing that it would be a winner, we have put out a large field of them and are prepared to fill orders, large or small, at a low price. This variety has a clean dark green foliage, no leaf spot, a fine plant-maker; the berry is a bright red. In shape, it is round; every one alike, making no buttons; firm as Klondike; in season. While some of the berries ripen ahead of Klondike, it would be termed a Klondike season. They are very large and easy to pick. They lay in piles right where you can see them. As to production, we don't believe it can be beat. In 1913, we gathered an average of 360 twenty-four quart cases to the acre. On average land with good cultivation; it has done well on all soil we have tested it on.

While we did not keep a count of the cases per acre the last season, we are sure they had a large crop of fine berries on them.

We would advise that you try at least one thousand of these plants. You will never regret it, and when you see the fruit once, you will want more plants. This variety is a Southern variety crossed with a Northern variety, which makes it adapted for the North as well as the South.

EXCELSIOR (Per.)—This variety is one we originated over twenty years ago, and has been the leading variety ever since. It is the earliest berry grown, and is too well known to need much description. Berries are of a dark red color, medium size; good plant-maker.

KLONDIKE (Per.)—This variety is grown largely in the South and Southwest, but no good for the North. The fruit is a dark red color, and very firm. We sell more of these plants than any other variety, and have a fine lot of plants to offer this season. Write us for special prices on this variety.

MICHEL, EARLY (Per.)—This variety was originated by Geo. Michel of this place over twenty years ago; good plant-maker; fine eating berry; fine for home use, but rather soft for shipping; second early. We have only a few thousand plants of this variety and would advise you to place your order early, as our supply may run out.

AROMA (Per.)—A well-known late variety; does well both North and South. The berry is large and very firm, making it a good shipper; makes a large yield. We have a large lot of these plants, and are able to make you a special price on large lots.

GANDY (Per.)—A well-known late variety; berries large and firm.

FREMONT WILLIAM (Per.)—Very late extra large good plant growth; berry firm; a fine shipper. Resembles the Gandy very much.
